

Gail McBride Waldron

February 28, 1936 - February 1, 2019

Gail McBride Waldron, 82, Passed away peacefully in Louisville on February 1st. Gail was born in Lexington, Kentucky on February 28, 1936 and graduated from Henry Clay High School in 1955. She later worked as a dental assistant. Gail met the love of her life, Jim Waldron, in Lexington and they were married in 1957. They had three children, Tony, Joe and Lisa. Gail was an avid reader, loved playing the piano and had a wonderful sense of humor.

Gail is survived by her husband Jim Waldron, her sister June Hill, her three children, Tony Waldron, Joe Waldron (Robin), and Lisa Domene (David), and her grandchildren, Chris, Ryan, Steven, Jamie, Lindsey and Iris. Gail was preceded in death by her parents, James and Blanch McBride, sisters Beulah Thompson, Ann Presley, Pansy Wash and brothers Kenny and Donnie McBride.

Visitation 2-4 pm Sunday February 10th at Pearson's, 149 Breckenridge Lane, Louisville, KY.

In lieu of flowers, expressions of sympathy can be made to Dare to Care Food Banks or The Salvation Army.

Events

FEB Visitation 02:00PM - 04:00PM

10

Pearson Funeral Home

149 Breckenridge Lane, Louisville, KY, US, 40207

Comments

“ Dearest Lisa, Jim, Joe, Tony and The rest of the Domene clan,

I am so deeply sorry for your loss! Gail, Mom, Mimi was such a wonderful, spirited women who added a lot of fun and spark to everyone around her. From the first time I met her back in college, I fell in love with her welcoming warmth, spunk and sense of humor! At that moment, I knew where my best friend got her wonderful and fun personality....Lisa was like a mini Gail! i loved spending time at your house with the 2 of them...they would just feed off of one another and all we would do is laugh all day. It was a great weekend escape for me from college.

I have always felt a special friendship, or bond, with Gail, even as the years went on and I didn't get to see her as much due to our many miles apart, I still felt a connection....maybe it's because she brought such an unbelievable daughter into the world, who I was lucky enough to meet at UK and become my best friend. Or maybe it was because we shared the same birthday, or the love of petite-fours, chocolate eclairs and UK sports? It's probably all of those reasons wrapped up together and then some. However, what I do know is that she will be truly missed by her family, loved ones, and friends and we will all feel a void for a while- missing that funny, spunky, high spirited woman that we all loved so dearly. My heart goes out to all of you....I wish I could do something to make it better. <3

May your dear memories of your mom, wife, and Mimi be held in your heart forever and always and help you get though this difficult time. She may be gone from earth, but she will live on in our hearts and will NEVER be forgotten! Much love and sympathy, 'Nother Lisa XOXOXO

P.S. Do you think she's trying to pull some strings "upstairs" for a Big Blue NCAA championship? Haha....I hope so! ;-)

Lisa Howard - February 08, 2019 at 08:47 AM