

Jane McCord Robertson

April 10, 1933 - April 13, 2019

Jane McCord Robertson, born on April 10, 1933 in Richmond, Kentucky, passed away after a short illness at age 86 on April 13, 2019 in Louisville, Kentucky. Janey was the beloved wife of Bob Robertson, mother to John, Amy, and Rob Robertson, and grandmother to Andrew Robertson, Meredith Robertson, and Rylie Wallace.

Janey graduated from Eastern Kentucky University where she studied art education and met the love of her life, Bob. She was an enthusiastic artist and multi-talented musician who sang beautifully, played dulcimer, claw-hammer banjo, harp, piano, penny whistle, concertina, ukulele, and guitar. Janey was best known for her countless contributions to the music community, including the Louisville Dulcimer Society, Kentucky Music Weekend, The Ohio Valley Gathering, and many aspects of the Louisville Arts community. Janey was an active member of the Louisville P.E.O., a loyal member of her book club, and a member of Harvey Browne Presbyterian Church. She was a good friend to many who knew her for her sincere social graces, her ability to bring people together, her humor and love for all that life could offer. Many knew Janey as the informal family historian, a masterful, creative cook, a great story-teller, an avid reader and lover of literature and cinema classics, a supporter of Louisville Public Media, Actors Theatre, and the arts community, the keeper of treasured family traditions, and the heartbeat of the Robertson family, she will be missed by many who's lives she touched.

Funeral services will be Thursday, 1:00 pm at Harvey Browne Presbyterian Church sanctuary, 311 Browns Lane, Louisville, KY 40207 with burial to follow at Cave Hill Cemetery.

Friends and family can pay their respects at the visitation on Wednesday, April 17 from 4:00 to 8:00 p.m. at Pearson's Funeral Home, 149 Breckenridge Lane, Louisville, KY 40207.

In lieu of flowers, consider a donation to Louisville Public Media.

“ So very sad -I missed this until the day after the funeral. Our Moms were cousins and Janey was very beloved to my Mom. They are catching back up on things in heaven!

God bless you Janey and hold you in His arms.

“ As a fellow member of the Louisville Dulcimer Society, I can frankly submit how much Janey will be missed. Everyone loved her warmth and good humor, as well as her many talents.

“ Janey loved life. She was at home with anyone and everyone and was always an easy and interesting conversationist. She was so special to me personally, inviting me into her home during an especially difficult time in my life, feeding me, then teaching me my first lesson on guitar. I will forever be grateful to her for that; folk music held such a special place in her life.

Bob and I worked together for many years and he and Janey have been dear friends for most of my life. They even joined Teresa and I on our honeymoon in Acapulco, when Bob and I both won our company's sales contest. We spent years together at Actors Theatre performances, usually followed by dinner and drinks and we've always spent New Years Eve with them at their annual party; what wonderful times we've shared in our lifetimes, all the more reason for Teresa and I to be so sad. We will miss Janey's sweet smile and easy manner. God speed Ms. Janey, until we meet again.
