

Susan Taylor Scott

October 27, 1951 - April 10, 2020

Susan Taylor Scott, 68 passed away peacefully on April 10, 2020 at Norton Hospital Downtown where she was transferred to from her home at Treyton Oak Towers. She was born to the late Dr. Ralph M. Scott and Alice Francisco Scott on October 27, 1951 in Richmond, VA. Susan spent her childhood in Richmond, VA., Waverly, NY, Chicago, IL and Manchester England before settling in Louisville, KY. She was a graduate of Seneca High School.

Though handicapped since birth Susan traveled widely, was on a bowling team, participated in Exceptional Equitation, was an award winning volunteer at the Jewish Community Center in Louisville and an advocate for persons with disabilities in Frankfort, KY. She was just a really nice person who wanted to get to know every one that she met and enjoyed life to the fullest.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Ralph M. Scott Jr., and her parents. She is survived by her brother, John T. Scott, his wife Ann Torres, of Louisville, KY. and her sister-in-law, Eun Mi Yu of Washington, DC.

Sue would have wanted to acknowledge her dear and caring friend Barb Kruse, her caregiver and friend Cindy Erickson and the entire staff at Treyton Oak Towers.

Due to government guidelines pertaining to COVID19, there will be a private interment at Cave Hill Cemetery. Arrangements under the direction of Pearson's.

Comments

“ We have known Susan and her family since we came to Louisville in 1970. She was a caring, thoughtful and friendly woman who I admired and she will always have a special place in my heart. We send our condolences and prayers to John, Ann and Eun Mi Yu.

Blessings

Curt and Kathy Sigdestad

kathleen sigdestad - April 19, 2020 at 12:56 PM